Billericay Town 🎅 have been made the favourites to win

the 2024/18 Isthmian Premier League title by betting company Betway.&

t;

On Tuesday (August)

onaire owner Glenn Tamplin

has further added to his squad with the 🎅 signings of former

Wolves defender Kevin Foley

and a 2006/07 Champions League runner-up with Liverpool in midfielder

Jermaine Pennant

- 🎅 giving them a much stronger squad heading into the new ca mpaign.

Ricay were

originally given a first show of 13/8 with 🎅 the leading onli ne bookmaker, but thanks to

the intake of new talent from higher divisions and again securing the services 🎅 of

former England international Paul Konchesky and Tottenham midfielder J amie O'Hara, the

odds that been slashed to 2/5 favourites.

The confidence 🎅 in Tamplin's side is so high

at present that the closest rivals in the betting odds for taking the crown 🎅 instead of

Billericay Town are Dulwich Hamlet at 16/1 - although a separate book has been opened

not including the 🎅 Essex side, placing Dulwich as 3/1 favour ites.

Betway's Alan Alger,

said: "Whilst the buzz is building ahead of the start of 🎅

; the Premier League, a big

gamble has been going on far lower down the leagues.

"Billericay Town have been punted

all 🎅 the way in from 13/8 to a current 2/5 for the Isthmian

Premier.

"Having Jermaine

Pennant and Paul Konchesky in the 🎅 ranks has clearly instill
